

Major in Hong Kong Studies

Programme Learning Outcomes

Programme Level Outcomes	Faculty Level Outcomes	University Educational Aims
Upon completion of the programme, students should be able to: 1. demonstrate the ability to critically appraise diverse information about Hong Kong;	Students majoring in Arts should be able to: 1. demonstrate strong analytical ability through critical engagement with the discourses of the Humanities; and develop an appreciation of the arts as a form of life-long learning worldview perspectives on human issues	Benchmarked against the highest international standards, the 4-year undergraduate curriculum at HKU is designed to enable our students to develop their capacities in: 1. pursuit of academic/professional excellence, critical intellectual enquiry and life-long learning
2. demonstrate the ability to interpret and critique common perceptions of and scholarly analyses of pressing issues in Hong Kong's development;	2. critically and creatively appraise received ideas and established knowledge; and demonstrate the ability to articulate their own perspectives and develop informed insights into fundamental human issue;	2. tackling novel situations and ill-defined problems
3. demonstrate a sophisticated understanding of Hong Kong's regional and global impact;	3. question their own values and reflect on the assumptions underlying their worldview; and appreciate difference through engagement with contending viewpoints and beliefs;	3. critical self-reflection, greater understanding of others, and upholding personal and professional ethics
4. develop multicultural perspectives on Hong Kong-related issues and dialog cross-culturally with people from diverse backgrounds;	4. demonstrate an appreciation of the social, cultural and aesthetic diversity of the human heritage and develop multicultural and cross-cultural perspectives on human issues;	4. intercultural communication and global citizenship
5. demonstrate the ability to present written and oral work about Hong Kong to diverse audiences; and	5. demonstrate strong communicative competency at both the concrete and abstract levels and develop conversance with various forms of artistic communication; and	5. communication and collaboration
6. express informed opinions about Hong Kong in academic, professional and social settings.	6. demonstrate an understanding and appreciation of the interconnectedness of peoples and societies across time.	6. leadership and advocacy for the improvement of the human condition