

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
FACULTY OF ARTS

Master of Arts in the field of Art History

Programme Learning Outcomes

Programme Learning Outcomes	University TPg Education Aims
On successful completion of the programme, students should be able to:	Benchmarked against the highest international standards, the taught postgraduate curricula at HKU are designed to enable our students to develop their capabilities in:
1. Demonstrate a critical knowledge of current art-historical debates, methodologies, and research resources.	(i) Critical intellectual inquiry and acquiring up-to-date knowledge and research skills in a discipline/profession.
2. Deploy knowledge and apply research skills to historical and theoretical investigation based on original ideas.	(ii) Application of knowledge and research skills to practice or theoretical exploration, demonstrating originality and creativity.
3. Identify trends and developments in art history and the visual arts, and articulate innovative approaches.	(iii) Tackling novel situations and ill-defined problems.
4. Write and present proficiently about art and art history to scholarly, curatorial, and public audiences.	(iv) Collaboration and communication of disciplinary knowledge to specialists and the general public.
5. Identify and apply the professional goals and standards of art historians working in the academic, museological, heritage, and art market fields.	(v) Awareness of and adherence to personal and professional ethics.