

MPsyMed Programme Learning Outcomes:

University Educational Aims (UEAs) for Taught Postgraduate (TPg) Curricula		Master of Psychological Medicine (Psychosis Studies) (MPsyMed)
		Mapping Programme Level Learning Outcomes (PLO) to UEAs
To enable our students to develop their capabilities in:
UEA1	Critical intellectual enquiry and acquiring up-to-date knowledge and research skills in a discipline / profession	PLO1	Demonstrate the capacity to collect and critically review a wide range of biopsychosocial knowledge about psychosis and up-to-date issues in the area of psychosis studies
UEA2	Application of knowledge and research skills to practice or theoretical exploration, demonstrating originality and creativity	PLO2	Design and conduct research studies in the field of psychosis and to derive information, ideas and insight that can contribute to clinical service, education, public awareness and research in the field of psychosis
UEA3	Tackling novel situations and ill-defined problems	PLO3	Develop problem solving skills in psychosis studies, and apply and integrate knowledge about different types of psychological interventions in clinical populations and case management
UEA4	Collaboration and communication of disciplinary knowledge to specialists and the general public	PLO4	Establish professional and consistent communications skills with patients, caregivers, practitioners and colleagues in the healthcare sector
UEA5	Awareness of and adherence to personal and professional ethics	PLO5	Appreciate and assess the relationship of psychosis and society, including public stigma, the ethical and legal issues involved
UEA6	Enhancement of leadership and advocacy skills in the profession	PLO6	Assume a leadership role in service and program development in promoting better care of psychosis patients and advocating public anti-stigma campaign