

THE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Master of Social Work Programme Learning Outcomes

Programme Learning Outcomes (PLOs)	University Educational Aims for TPg Curricula
On successful completion of the programme, students should:	To enable our students to develop their capabilities in:
1. Show mastery of a critical and independent learning habit and readiness for lifelong learning	1. Critical intellectual enquiry and acquiring up-to-date knowledge and research skills in a discipline / profession
2. apply multi-disciplinary knowledge and understanding to adapt to new and uncertain situations and problems	2. Application of knowledge and research skills to practice or theoretical exploration, demonstrating originality and creativity
3. show commitment to ethical practice and recognize personal strengths and weaknesses	5. Awareness of and adherence to personal and professional ethics
4. communicate effectively and ethically with clients and people from all walks of life and develop abilities in collaborative team work	4. Collaboration and communication of disciplinary knowledge to specialists and the general public
5. recognize multi-cultural diversity and identify socio-cultural factors that contribute to the development of social problems	3. Tackling novel situations and ill-defined problems
6. show readiness to serve the needy in society through direct service provision, strategic research and policy advocacy	6. Enhancement of leadership and advocacy skills in a profession