

PDipPsyMed Programme Learning Outcomes:

University Taught Postgraduate (TPG) Educational Aims (EAs)		Postgraduate Diploma of Psychological Medicine (Early Psychosis) (PDipPsyMed)
		Mapping Programme Level Learning Outcomes (PLO) to TPG
TPG1	Critical intellectual enquiry and acquiring up-to-date knowledge and research skills in a discipline / profession	PLO1	Demonstrate the capacity to identify and analyse a wide range of biopsychosocial knowledge about psychosis and up-to-date issues in the area of psychosis studies
TPG2	Application of knowledge and research skills to practice or theoretical exploration, demonstrating originality and creativity	PLO2	Retrieve and identify research studies in the field of psychosis and to derive information, ideas and insight that can contribute to clinical service, education, public awareness and research
TPG3	Tackling novel situations and ill-defined problems	PLO3	Apply knowledge about different types of psychological interventions in clinical populations and case management
TPG4	Collaboration and communication of disciplinary knowledge to specialists and the general public	PLO4	Establish effective and consistent communications skills with patients, caregivers, peers and multidisciplinary colleagues
TPG5	Awareness of and adherence to personal and professional ethics	PLO5	Consider the relationship of psychosis and society, including public stigma, the ethical and legal issues involved
TPG6	Enhancement of leadership and advocacy skills in the profession	PLO6	Identify leadership in service and program development in promoting better care of psychosis patients and advocating public anti-stigma campaign